The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 11, to Tuesday November 14, 1749.

Moſcow, October 20.

THE Departure of her Imperial Majeſty for Petersbourg, will certainly take Place in the Courſe of the Month of December, for which Preparations are already making. Great Quantities of Snow has lately fallen in theſe Parts, and the Froſt is ſo far ſet in, that we begin already to make uſe of Sledges. The Nuptials of the Chamberlain Nariskin with Mademoiſelle Romanzow, Niece of the late General Romanzow, were celebrated at Court Yeſterday with great Magnificence.

Naples, Oct. 20, N. S. On the 10th Inſtant M. Reggio, General of the Gallies, received Notice that the King's Frigate la Reine, lately launched from the Stocks, had been obliged to take Shelter in the Port of Baja, having been in Danger of foundering, her firſt Tere of Guns proving too low, on which Account many Carpenters and Caulkers were immediately ordered to Baja, to repair theſe Faults, and to make her fit for Navigation. The Prince of Ardore, the King's Ambaſſadour at the French Court, is preparing to ſet out from this City on his Return to Paris.

Naples, Oct. 29, N. S. The King having been informed that the ill Uſage of the Officers to their Soldiers, and the Badneſs of the Bread with which they had been ſerved, were the principal Reaſons of the late great Deſertion amongſt his Troops, has given Orders for the puniſhing of all thoſe, who, upon Enquiry, ſhall appear to have been guilty of either of thoſe Offences.

Rome, Oct. 25, N. S. Cardinal Portocarrero's firſt publick Audience of the Pope, as Miniſter from the Court of Spain, is fixed for the 28th Inſtant. The Biſhop of Agnani is appointed Biſhop of Lorette, and the Abbe Latanzi is appointed Biſhop of Citta di Caſtello.

Florence, Oct. 31, N. S. Laſt Week the Dominican Fryers in this City having aſſembled to chuſe their Prior, a Diſſention enſued amongſt them, and Pere Iſola was very irregularly elected. Pere Vernaccini, Brother to the Spaniſh and Naples Agent in this City, who had principally oppoſed that Election, was, by expreſs Orders from the Regency, ordered to depart Tuſcany in twenty-four Hours: A Repreſentation thereof having been made to the General of their Order at Rome, he, on the 21ſt Inſtant, by an Expreſs, declared void and revoked that Election, as irregular and contrary to their Rights and Conſtitutions, appointing at the ſame time another Frier to act proviſionally as Prior.

Plaiſance, Nov. 1, N. S. The Infant Duke arrived here Yeſterday from Parma, and was complimented thereupon by all Perſons of Diſtinction at this Place. An Expreſs is arrived here with an Account, that the Galleys, on board of which was the Infanta Dutcheſs of Parma, had been ſeen off Seſtri di Ponente, where her Highneſs was to land; from thence ſhe is to proceed by St. Peter d'Arena near Genoa for this City, where every Thing is ready for her Reception. The Infant Duke ſets out To-morrow or next Day for Caſtle St. Giovanni, on the Frontiers of this Dutchy, to meet the Princeſs Infanta his Spouſe, and conduct her to this Place.

Genoa, Nov. 5, N. S. The Troubles of this State ſeem to be at preſent pretty much appeaſed, and Commerce begins again ſo far to flouriſh, that ſeveral Ships, loaden with Merchandize from Foreign Countries, are almoſt continually coming in and going out of this Port. We learn by Letters from Conſtantinople, that an Ambaſſador of great Dignity was arrived there from the Sophy of Perſia, with a very numerous Retinue, amongſt whom were many Perſons of Diſtinction; and that he had been admitted to an Audience of the Grand Vizier, and delivered his Credential Letters.

Milan, Nov. 6, N. S. An Expreſs is gone to Vienna with the Propoſition of the Count Arcelli, and ſome Jews of Mantua, for farming the the Revenues of this Dutchy and thoſe of Mantua, both which the Empreſs Queen had ordered to be farmed out.

Vienna, Nov. 8, N. S. Frequent Councils, relating to the Affairs of Hungary, have been lately held at Court, in the Preſence of the Empreſs Queen, who advances happily in her Pregnancy. Advice has been received, that Enginier General Bohn has already made great Progreſs in the repairing of ſeveral of the Fortifications in Croatia. A few Days ago Count Starembourg gave an elegant Entertainment to divers Perſons of the firſt Rank, on Occaſion of the Marriage of the young Counteſs of Starembourg, his Neice, with the Baron d'Ulm; after which the new married Couple received the Nuptial Benediction, in the Preſence of all the Imperial Family, in the Chapel Royal.

Munich, Nov. 9, N. S. The Elector is determined to make a further Reduction in his Troops, but at the ſame Time has ordered the Militia to be kept on ſuch a Footing, as to be able at all Times to draw Men enough from thence to complete his Regiments.

Copenhagen, Nov. 12, N. S. The King has appointed M. Berregard, one of the Gentlemen of his Bed-chamber, to be his Miniſter to the King of Poland as Elector of Saxony. The Mortality amongſt the horned Cattle is greatly decreaſed in Jutland, and in the Northern Parts of this Kingdom; but in the Southern Parts, in the Iſland of Fyonie, and even in the Neighbourhood of this City, it ſtill continues to rage very much.

Berlin, Nov. 15, N. S. Count de Hacke, Lieutenant General of Infantry, is appointed by the King, Commandant of this City, in the Room of the late General Sydow. On the 8th Inſtant the Queen's Birth Day was celebrated at Court with great Magnificence. The Baron de Hopken, the new Miniſter from the King of Sweden to his Poliſh Majeſty as Elector of Saxony, arrived here Yeſterday from Stockholm.

THE Stationers Almanack for the Year 1750, Nº V. The Deſign of this Almanack has met with the general Approbation of all thoſe Gentlemen and Ladies who have ſeen it. The Kalendar is diſtinguiſhed by Red and Black, &c. To which are added Four Tables, namely, 1. a Regal Table. 2. An Epiſcopal Table. 3. Terms and their Returns. 4. Judges, City Officers, &c. &c. Over the whole is a beautiful Repreſentation of King John offering his Crown to the Pope's Legate at Weſtminſter, in the Preſence of his Nobles; which ſolemn Reſignation may remind us of the miſerable Effects of Popiſh Superſtition, ſo very notorious during his Reign, may put all true Engliſhmen and Lovers of Liberty, upon their Guard, againſt the Tyranny of a Popiſh Monarch, or the Slavery of the Romiſh Church; and will alſo make a very uſeful as well as ornamental Piece of Furniture.
